

Scott Cooper

Mr. Cooper began his career at Caterpillar back in 1997 in Clayton, NC. He has held various positions within the company, including Operations Facilitator, Engineering Endurance Supervisor, Customer Services Manager, Senior Marketing Engineer, Marketing Manager and Senior Industry Territory Representative. In his current position, he is responsible for managing the marketing/sales and product support for Cat Dealers located in Tennessee, Mississippi and Arkansas. He currently serves as the President of the Construction Management Executive and Advisory Boards at ECU. He is a guest speaker in current classrooms and assist with various projects in Construction Management. He also serves on the Dean's Advancement Council for the College of Technology and Computer Science at East Carolina University. Mr. Cooper is the Recruiting Supervisor for Caterpillar at ECU. He is a member of the Cape Fear Community College Construction Board and is the current President for his community Property Owners Association in Sanford NC.

Prior to working at Caterpillar, Mr. Cooper held the position of Quality Manager at SPANCO Inc located in Sanford NC. He also was a Process Engineer and Quality Manager for Collins and Aikman in Farmville NC

Mr. Cooper Graduated from East Carolina University in 1990, with an Industrial Technology Degree, concentrating in Technical Sales and Service.

Mr. Cooper is involved with his Church (St Luke United Methodist Church) where he serves on the Missions committee and Church Council.

Mr. Cooper is married to Beth Cooper (1993 ECU Alumni), and they have one Daughter Hope Cooper who is a freshman in high school.