

James A. (“Jim”) Hackney, III, P.E.

James A. Hackney, III, P.E. of Washington, NC is a retired manufacturing executive and consulting engineer. He was CEO of Hackney Industries, Inc. in Washington, NC, an international truck body and trailer manufacturing firm, until 1995 and is now President of The Hackney Group, Inc., a consulting and investment management firm.

Hackney received two degrees in engineering from N.C. State University in Raleigh and served on active duty as an officer in the U.S. Army. He has served as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of NCSU and presently serves on the Board of the NCSU Engineering Foundation. He also serves on the Advisory Board of the ECU Department of Engineering.

He is a licensed Professional Engineer, a Fellow of the National Society of Professional Engineers, and has served as President of the Professional Engineers of NC. He is active in a number of civic and professional organizations, including the Boy Scouts of America, where he has served as Council and Regional President.

Hackney is a lay minister and Vestryman with Zion Episcopal Church in Washington. He and his wife, Connie, have two children and two grown grandchildren.