

Richard F. Donnelly, Executive Vice President

Mr. Donnelly began his career with Gregory Poole Equipment Company, Raleigh, N.C. in 1978.

He has held various positions throughout the Company, including Forestry Products Marketing Consultant, Marketing Manager, Industrial Division Manager and Vice President of Construction and Industrial Divisions until he was promoted to his current position in 1999. As Executive Vice President, Mr. Donnelly is responsible for managing the operations of the Construction, Power Systems and Industrial Divisions at Gregory Poole Equipment Company.

He is a past President and Chairman for the Raleigh Sales and Marketing Executives Association.

Mr. Donnelly is past President of the Advisory Board for the Construction Management Program at East Carolina University. He currently serves on the Dean's Advancement Council for the College of Technology and Computer Science at East Carolina University.

He is past President and serves on the Board for the Material Handling Equipment Dealer Association, a national association for independent material handling distributors.

Mr. Donnelly received an Associates Degree from Wingate College and a double degree in Business Administration and Civil Engineering Technology from Oregon State University in 1971.

Mr. Donnelly has been involved with the Jimmy V Celebrity Golf Classic for Cancer Research for many years and currently serves on the Board.

Mr. Donnelly is married to Linda, and they have two sons and two grandchildren.